Students had the opportunity to visit Longwood Gardens last weekend.

Phelps Students Volunteer at Food Bank

by: Ms. Merkel

On Sunday, January 8, The Phelps School volunteered at the West Chester Food Cupboard. Nick Brestle, Alvin Dahn, Nate LeCoure, Manasseh Small, and Daniel Alessi assisted the staff in organizing donation boxes and readying the food for the upcoming weeks. After sorting non-perishable items and stacking the crates of food, the boys also broke down cardboard boxes to recycle. They did a great job and their work was greatly appreciated!

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT
5 Questions with...

Name: Rong Li, Phelps class of 2018

Hometown: Shanghai, China

The Lion's Tale sat down with Rong to get to know him a little better.

1. If you could live anywhere in the world, where would it be and why?

Shanghai. The reason is my family and most of my friends are there. I love to stay with them.

2. What was your toughest accomplishment?

My toughest accomplishment is to persist in writing a story continuously. Because it's hard to keep writing.

3. If you could trade lives with someone, who would it be and why?

I will trade lives with myself, ten years earlier.

4. If you had one superpower, what would it be?

I'd like to be able to teleport, because I could go to different places to travel in one day.

5. If you could take one item with you to a deserted island, what would it be and why?

I think I will bring a computer that can use solar power to refill its power. I can use it to continue my writing and to kill time.
