The Lion's Tale

October 20, 2017

Saturday, Oct. 21 - Halloween Party & Dance

This impressive stairway is part of the Halloween Party & Dance makeover of the Student Center, thanks to our ghoulishly talented team of interior decorators in the Phelps Family Association.

Looking Ahead:

Monday, Nov. 13 - First Trimester exams begin.

Friday, Nov. 17 - Thanksgiving Break

Monday, Nov. 27 - Dorms open at 1 p.m.

Annual Fun on the Fairways for Phelps

Middle School English: Elements of Literature

Mr. Mansi's students are reading Mississippi Trial, 1955, a historical novel by Chris Crowe about the Civil Rights Movement as seen through the eyes of Hiram Hillburn, the novel's protagonist. Class discussions began with a study of the tragic death of Emmett Till. The unit of study will culminate in a project about characterization in literature.

Lions Roar into Post-Season Playoffs

Student-athletes on the cross-country team are making great strides in their preparation for the league championship meet next Wednesday at Perkiomen.

The Varsity Soccer Team will end its regular season with a non-league match at Germantown Friends School tomorrow (October 21) at 2 p.m. Playoffs begin Tuesday at 3 pm as #4 Phelps hosts #5 Collegium Charter School. Lions vs. Cougars. Go, Lions.

Thank you, Family Association volunteers, for your many hours decorating the student center for the annual Halloween Party & Dance!

Construction Project Progress Report:

The first concrete has been poured!

The gentlemen of Phelps stepped away from their studies to pose for yearbook pictures. Our friends at Campli Photography will provide links for parents to order their sons' portraits.
