

Book Report - Summer Reading

Novel's Title and Author:

Reports are due during the first week of classes in September. All six sections must be completed.

Plot – What was the novel's major conflict? Identify and describe the protagonist and the antagonist. (What was the “problem” between them?) How was the conflict (problem) resolved? What did you learn from the conflict’s resolution? What did the main characters learn from the conflict and its resolution?

Point-of-View — Was the novel narrated in the first or third person? How does that perspective influence the reader's perceptions?

Character – Describe your favorite character in detail — his or her appearance, personality, behavior, and relationships with other characters. What is this character’s impact on you? What has he/she made you think?

Setting – Describe the setting in detail – location and time period. Describe the story’s mood. Does the setting change? Does the mood change? How were those changes significant?

Theme – What was the story’s main idea? Were there more than one? If so, describe each theme’s overall importance.

Your Opinion – What did you think of this book? Would you recommend it to other students your age? Why or why not?
